

At-Risk Funding for Low-Income Students

| At-Risk Identifier                                                                                                           | State                                                                                          |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| National school lunch program only* (24 states)                                                                              | AR, HI, IA, KS, KY, ME, MD, MA, MN, MS, MO, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NY, ND, OK, TN, TX, VA, WA, WI, WY |
| Other or multiple identifiers (19 states; 6 states with multiple identifiers that include the national school lunch program) | CA, CO, CT, DC, IL, IN, LA, MI, NM, NC, OH, OR, PA, RI, SC, UT, VT , WV                 |
| No identifier (8 states)                                                                                                     | AL, AK, AZ, DE, FL, GA, ID, SD                                                                 |

Other identifiers:

- ELL - English Language Learner (includes Vermont)
- SNAP - Supplemental nutritional assistance program
- TANF - Temporary assistance for needy families
- Title I
- CHIP - Children's health insurance program
- Federal poverty guidelines
- Medicaid
- Residential status: foster care, homeless, migrant, transient

* Students qualify for free or reduced price lunches if their family income fall below 130% or 185% of the federal income poverty guidelines, respectively.

Source: Education Commission of the States, 50-State Comparison of K-12 Funding, August 2019.