S.142 – An act relating to a pathway to licensure for internationally trained physicians

As passed by the General Assembly¹

Bill Summary

The bill establishes a pathway to licensure for internationally trained physicians and requires the Department of Health in collaboration with the Board of Medical Practice to detail the resources and processes needed. While no appropriation will be needed in fiscal year 2027, resources could be needed in fiscal years 2028 and 2029.
