Vermont Department of Liquor Control Project Description

A. Summary
On July 1, 2000, the Vermont State Legislature mandated that all licensees “ensure that every employee who is involved in the sale or serving of alcohol beverages completes a training program approved by the department of liquor control before the employee begins serving or selling alcoholic beverages and at least once every 24 months thereafter.” (Title 7 VSA §239(c)) A licensee may comply with this requirement by conducting its own training program on its premises, using information and materials furnished by the Department of Liquor Control (DLC) or by attending a seminar given by an investigator from the Vermont Department of Liquor Control.

During the past year, the DLC has conducted approximately 1,154 seminars for second-class license holders that incorporate written and audio-visual materials with personal instruction by a state investigator or trained educator. The Alcohol Server Awareness Program (ASAP) for Stores manual is an integral part of this training program. The manual covers such topics as Liquor Liability: the Dram Shop Act, How to Identify a Minor and How to Refuse a Sale (see enclosed manual). A revised and condensed version of the manual has just been completed and the Department of Liquor Control proposes to use the NABCA Educational Award to provide copies of the updated booklet for use in its alcohol server/seller training program.

B. Criteria
1. The use of written and audio-visual materials, in conjunction with a Power Point presentation and professional instruction from a trained DLC investigator is a highly effective, comprehensive approach to alcohol server training.
2. The DLC developed the instruction manual and will use it in all DLC sponsored seminars. Steven M. Waldo, state representative to the NABCA Education Task Force and Marcia L. Lawrence, state representative to the NABCA Distribution Center Logistics Committee and Executive Assistant to the Commissioner, will be the Project Coordinators.
3. The Alcohol Server Awareness Program (ASAP) for Stores is a collaboration of the Vermont Department of Liquor Control and the Vermont Department of Health.

C. Time Line
The manual has already been developed and can be distributed for use as soon as grant monies are made available for printing and assembly costs.

D. Evaluation
Though difficult to measure the impact of individual components of the training programs, their combined effect has greatly increased the ability of servers and sellers to comply with the laws and regulations regarding the sale and service of alcohol beverages. For example, those who have attended a DLC server/seller training seminar are three times less likely to sell to a minor than those who have not.

E. Continuation
Funds for more manuals will be provided by the DLC as needed. The NABCA Educational Award will cover the cost of printing approximately 4,000 copies.
Budget

All funds from this grant will be used for the sole purpose of printing training manuals. No personal contracts will be involved and no new positions are associated with this grant. In accordance with State guidelines, the printing will be awarded through the bid process conducted by the Vermont Purchasing & Contract Administration, contingent upon the approval of these grant funds.

Introduction

The Vermont Department of Liquor Control’s (DLC) mission is to enforce alcohol and tobacco laws in Vermont. The Liquor Control Board’s three members are appointed by the Governor.

The Liquor Control Board creates regulations regarding the sale of alcohol and tobacco products. These regulations have the force and effect of law in the State of Vermont. The Liquor Control Board has the authority to suspend or revoke licenses for violations and may impose additional penalties.

The Vermont Department of Liquor Control’s Enforcement Division consists of the Chief/Director, 13 Field Investigators, 2 Education Investigators, a Training Specialist, 2 Lieutenants, and office support staff. This division enforces the laws and regulations relating to alcohol and tobacco products in the State of Vermont. This includes investigating complaints, on-site inspections, compliance checks of alcohol and tobacco retailers, and providing educational programs for schools, stores, police officers, and others.

need to know if you are selling alcohol and/or tobacco in a store. This book does not list all the laws and regulations. It is meant to be a general guide for sellers.

If you have further questions speak to your boss or the liquor investigator in your area. You can also look up Title 7 in the Vermont Statutes. The Statutes are available online at the Vermont Department of Liquor Control website at www.state.vt.us/dlc. They are also available at most public libraries and town clerks offices.

Record Keeping Responsibilities

Now that you have watched the Department of Liquor Control Video and have read this booklet you are required to sign a certificate stating that you have been trained in liquor laws. Your boss should have this certificate available but if they need one they can access it on our website at www.state.vt.us/dlc. Or they can call our office and ask for one to be sent to them. This certificate must be filled out prior to you selling alcohol.

Once the certificate is filled out make sure you know where it is in case you are questioned by a Liquor Control Investigator.

Congratulations, You have completed the training process. If you have any questions please ask the boss or call the local liquor Investigator.
Compliance Checks

The Department of Liquor Control conducts compliance checks of establishments that are licensed to sell alcohol and tobacco products. In these compliance checks, an individual under 21 (for alcohol) or under 18 (for tobacco) will attempt to buy alcohol or tobacco products. The minors working with DLC will not lie, however other minors may. Because of this you should always be asking for ID’s and not just asking the customer’s age.

Compliance checks are conducted for alcohol and tobacco. Always remember to ask for the ID if someone looks of questionable age. Once you have the ID use some of the suggestions that are mentioned in the ID section of this booklet.

Tips to Assist Sellers

Be familiar with current liquor laws and regulations.

Maintain a logbook for incidents that occur while selling alcohol, this log can track such things as name and description of patrons, or a brief description of an incident.

There are other various regulations that you...
Educational Program

The purpose of DLC's educational programs is to provide training to the alcohol and tobacco seller in Vermont regarding the state's alcohol and tobacco laws and regulations. An understanding of these laws and regulations will assist the seller in making appropriate decisions in the course and scope of their duties. The Vermont Legislature, by requiring seller training, reinforced DLC's position that education provides support to sellers of alcohol and tobacco products.

Education Regulation #3 applies to licensed sellers of alcohol or tobacco products. The law requires that:

Liquor license applicants must be trained by a Liquor Control Investigator prior to the license being issued, and;

Every employee of the licensee who sells alcohol or tobacco products, including managers and owners, must attend training prior to making a sale and every two years thereafter.

Every employee who sells alcohol or tobacco products must be trained prior to making a sale.

Vermont Department of Liquor Control

Tobacco Hours of Sale:

An establishment may sell tobacco during all hours of operation.

The State of Vermont also has other tobacco laws; they are:

Vending machines selling tobacco products are not allowed.

Tobacco must be out of the reach of customers. Cartons of cigarettes and multipacks of chewing tobacco are allowed to be accessed by customers, but must be in plain view of an employee. Cigarettes can not be sold individually.

Cigars and pipe tobacco can be placed in a humidor on the sales counter in plain view but only if an employee can monitor the product.

No one can sell or buy bidis.

 Matches, lighters, and rolling papers are not considered to be tobacco products and can be sold to anyone. However a store can make a policy that they won't sell these types of products to anyone under 18 if they wish.
